Treatment Costs

The cost of braces depends on many factors such as which types of braces you choose, the extent of correction that is required to the teeth and/or the bite and jaw, and the length of time you will need to wear the braces.

It will not be possible to give an exact cost for the treatment until we have examined you. We will cover the exact cost and financial options during the initial examination.

Our staff will be more than happy to help you understand your insurance benefits. We will provide you with a predetermination form that will outline the kind of orthodontic treatment you will need and an estimated time and fee for your treatment.
